SOCIETY OF HOSPITAL LINEN SERVICE AND LAUNDRY MANAGERS TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT FORUM

We believe the 2012 Exhibition Package will represent exceptional value for money for the following reasons:

- 1 We have expanded the choice, recognising that a shell stand may not be appropriate. Floor area can be purchased, saving the cost of erection of a stand. Both are exceptional value. We bring the customer to you!
- 2 Free admission for two Company Representatives per stand for the duration. Additional representatives may be charged £20 per day. Companies not exhibiting will be charged delegates rates
- 3 The conference programme will allow ample opportunity for delegates to visit the stands. Tea/coffee at breaks will be served in the Exhibition area. A buffet lunch will be available, again, served within the exhibition area.
- 4 Any Company exhibiting at the SHLS&LM Conference will have their name firmly registered in the minds of all Linen Service Managers in 2012 and years to follow. A list of all exhibitors is contained within our Handbook, printed annually.
- 5 The SHLS&LM Exhibition is an ideal opportunity for Companies to cement existing relations, form new ones, launch new products and meet direct purchasers of their products.
- 6 The organisers recognise that although the Society is particularly NHS based, exhibitors may wish to use the opportunity to market/introduce products to other customers/potential customers. The Exhibition provides an ideal shop window.
- 7 We mail-shot up to 1000 potential customers, a list of all exhibitors is included within the conference programme.
- 8 Photographs of exhibitors are placed on the Society's website.
- 9 Exhibitors may invite guests to visit their stands who do not wish to be registered as delegates. Bona Fide guests (those not in competition with another exhibitor) will not be charged, but will require a registration badge from the conference reception.
- 10 All exhibitors will be granted the opportunity to discuss their individual requirements, during and after the event with the exhibition organisers. A feedback and thank you session will be hosted by the organisers after the event.
